Re: United States v. Christopher Scalia, 11 Cr. 170 (GBD)

Dear Judge Daniels:

On April 15, 2016, the parties appeared before the Court and jointly requested that the defendant's terms of supervised release be modified to include in-patient drug treatment. Specifically, the parties jointly propose that the defendant's terms of supervised release be modified to include the following language: "in-patient drug treatment for 6 to 9 months, as recommended by ACI, at a treatment facility approved by the Probation Office."

Respectfully submitted,

PREET BHARARA
United States Attorney for the Southern District of New York
